

1.1 The Book of Hours was a status symbol in the 15th century, what was that? Text is exquisite and very high quality.

1.2 What innovations allowed the Guttenberg press to change the world? Mass-producible movable type; an oil-based ink; adjustable molds for varying page sizes and line lengths.

1.3 What is Greg's favorite 19th century edition of the Book of Mormon? 1858 James Right edition

2. Read at least 20 pages from the first edition of the Book of Mormon either in a first edition copy or using the online version at the Joseph Smith papers. How does that experience contrast with reading the current edition on a mobile phone, on paper or at <http://scriptures.churchofjesuschrist.org/>? I actually like the first edition of the Book of Mormon because it is more like story telling. I feel like I am actually reading Nephi's personal journal. The connected flow makes me feel more connected to the story as well. Although I think for the purpose of studying with other people, it is nice to have chapters and verses to refer back to the specific sentences.